ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The entire family really appreciates your expressions of love shown to us during the illness and passing of our mother. Each of you is very special to us and we really consider you "Family". We pray that God will continue to shower you with His blessings, and we know as expressed in Proverbs 31:31: "Your works will bring you praise at the city gate! Thank you all so much!

THE LEGACY OF
LIZZIE CATO DAVIS GILCHRIST

Mother Lizzie Cato Davis Gilchrist was born December 6, 1913 in Washington County, Georgia to the parentage of the late Boise and Julia Miller Cato. She was educated in the Public School System of Washington County, Georgia.

She united with the Robins Springs Baptist Church at an early age and later joined Greater Vineville Baptist Church where she served in various capacities, one being as the Church Mother for the past ten years.

She was an avid member of the Order of the Eastern Star, which includes the Adah Chapter, Miram Grand Chapter, Rachael Grand Court, Amaranth Court, Friendship Court, Heroine Court, Daughter of Isis, Royal Ladies Palace, and all of the High Degree Departments working under Hiram Grand Lodge Miriam Grand Chapter and Son of Haiti Supreme Department. She was also a Rose Garden Social Club member, where she served as Treasurer.

Lizzie Gilchrist was a widow of Charles Davis, Sr. and James Gilchrist, Sr. She was one of eighteen siblings, of which fourteen grew to maturity. Her memories will be cherished by her son, James (Tanja) Gilchrist, Jr.; and her daughters, Mary Jackson and Louise (Arthur) Talley; and a granddaughter whom she raised as a daughter, Theresa Gilchrist, Macon, Georgia. She has two sisters, Juanita Cato Ray, Denver, Colorado, and Louise (Levertis) Nealy, Jacksonville, Florida. She is also cherished by twenty-three grandchildren, Paul (Asha) Davis, William (Gail) Reid, Joseph (Valerie) Reid, Rosemary Reid, Bridgette Simmons, Faye (John) Davison, Alfreda (Juan) Davis, Marshall Talley, Shana Talley Williams, Nicole Talley, Eric (Marie) Gilchrist, Robert Gilchrist, Latasha Duffy, Trineshia Gilchrist, Charles (Brenda) Davis, Christopher Davis, Chuckie (Sharon) Davis, Dallas (Rita) Davis, Amelia (Mike) Hale, Shawnzia (Darrien) Thomas, Dorothy (Joseph) Tyler; forty-four great grandchildren; twenty-three great, great grandchildren; three sisters-in-law, Ruby Gilchrist, and Rose Gilchrist of Hepzibah, Georgia and Beatrice Merriwether, Washington, Pennsylvania; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, church families, and friends.
