Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so we saw it there;
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, that any friend could say,
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day;
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
we thank you so much, whatever the part.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
why cry for a soul set free,
Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared.

Miss me but let me go,
For this is journey we all must take
and each must go alone.

It's all a part of the Master's plan,
a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
go to the friends we know,
and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

Precious Memories

The life of Juanita Cato Brown began when she blessed her parents, Bosie Cato and Julie Miller Cato on May 18, 1922 in Sandersville, Georgia. She was the eleventh child born in the family. She was raised surrounded by her brothers, Herman, Robert, Freddie, Ulyses and her sisters, Lula, Matilda, Lizzie, Willie Pearl, Minnie Lee, Ella Mae, Pearlee, Eva Mae and Velma Louise. Juanita was the last living sibling of the 14 children. They all preceded her in death. As a child she loved playing outside with the other kids.

Juanita received her formal education in the country school in Sandersville, Ga. She was united in holy matrimony to Bobbie Lee Brown. This was a blended family of fifteen kids. They all remembered her as a loving and kind mother, whose pride and joy was the care and nurture of her family. She enjoyed family and her grandchildren and great grandkids were another source of joy in her life. Bobbie Lee and her son Timothy C. Ray preceded her in death.

By profession, Juanita was a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) at the Sandersville Memorial Hospital for many years as well as a Domestic working for the Tarbutons of Sandersville.

A woman of faith and belief in the Lord, Juanita accepted the Lord as her personal savior at a very young age. She was baptized at Robin Spring Baptist Church in Sandersville. She later joined Pinehill Baptist Church along with her husband. Upon relocating to Denver Colorado, she joined Agape Christian Church under the pastoral leadership of Robert E. Woolfolk. She truly enjoyed the wisdom and knowledge she was gaining as she served the Lord in spirit and in truth.

Juanita was a fun-loving woman, who enjoyed life and those she encircled. She loved beautiful flowers and had several flower gardens. She loved shopping and traveling. In her spare time she would enjoy all of the family pictures. The pride and joy of her life was being with family and The "Cato Family Reunion" each year. She had such a quiet spirit. To know Juanita was to love her.

Juanita Cato Brown departed this life to embrace the Lord on May 15, 2014, in Denver, Colorado.

Those left to cherish her memory and mourn her loss include 8 sons, Zeb T. (Iralene) Betha, Augusta, Ga. Leo Ray Jr., Atlanta, Ga. David L. (Bea) Ray, Boston, Ma. Sylvester Ray, Macon, Ga. Tommie L. (Elaine) Betha, Thomas Betha, Both of Atlanta, Ga. Billy (Pauline) Brown, Sandersville, Ga. Ralph Brown, Rochester, New York, 3 daughters, Eddie M. (Robert) Woolfolk, Denver, Co., Edna (Henry) Smith, Augusta, Ga. ## - AS BEAUTIFUL AS A ROSE -

*As beautiful as a rose to see,
was her life she lived so gracefully.
She made things precious by her touch;
her selfless love lives on in each of us.
The petals of her life fell one by one;
each a gift of her heart till there were none.
Yet her radiance blooms once again,
in fields of glory with no end.*

Love Eddie Mae

*When we think of you
we think of love and strength.
We were truly blessed to have you as our grandmother.
You laid a foundation for our family,
You taught us when life gets hard to get down on your knees and pray.
You showed us that we could always rely on family.
Your spirit will forever be in our presence.
Your strength and grace will forever be remembered.
We will love you always.
Your Grandchildren
